FINAL COMPOSITION

Use a spatula to clean the edge of the moulds and fill the chocolate shells with the pistachio filling.

Swing the moulds in a circle in order to create a even thin layer of pistachio filling onto the whole inside, then let crystallize again.

In the same way, create a second thin inner shell of chocolate and let crystallize at 15°C.

Remove from mould, then slightly heat the edges of two halves, then carefully bring the two haves together and make them stick well to form a single chocolate egg.
